

Name _____ Date _____

FRANCE, BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG, AND THE NETHERLANDS ON THE MAP

1. All of the items a-h should be answered with the name of one of the countries shown on the map.

- a. Smallest country: _____
- b. Second largest country: _____
- c. Third largest country: _____
- d. Largest country: _____
- e. Country on the English Channel: _____
- f. Country on the Straits of Dover: _____
- g. Country without a sea coast: _____
- h. Country most directly facing the North Sea: _____

2. Five important rivers are shown on the map. Label these rivers and color them blue.

- A: The Seine River
- B: The Loire River
- C: The Garonne River
- D: The Rhone-Saone River
- E: The Rhine River

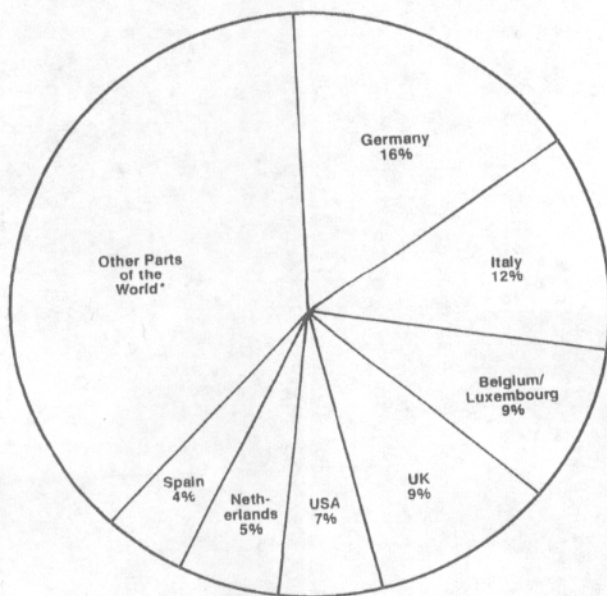

3. France has great mountain ranges on its south and east. The location of the mountains is shown by the light-numbered circles on the map. Draw the symbol (~~~~) for mountains in the circles. Label the mountains. At circle

- ① Pyrenees Mts.
- ② Vosges Mts.
- ③ Jura Mts.
- ④ Alps Mts.

4. Label the following cities:

- Amsterdam*—the capital of the Netherlands
- Brussels*—the capital of Belgium
- Paris*—the capital of France
- Bordeaux*—a port city on France's Bay of Biscay (at AA on the map)
- Marseilles*—a port city on France's Mediterranean coast (at BB on the map)

Who Buys from France?

*Less than 4% per country, e.g., Japan, 3.6%; USSR, 2.1%, etc.

Who Trades with France?

5. What five countries buy more than one-half of all the things that France sells?

6. Shade in the part of the graph that tells what percent of France's products the United States buys.

7. On the map, shade in the two countries that are the third biggest buyers of French products.